The Savoy involves the substantial rehabilitation of two adjacent properties in downtown Oakland that were originally constructed over 100 years ago: the Oaks Hotel located at 587 15th Street and the adjacent property, the Jefferson Inn at 1424 Jefferson Street. The 7-story Oaks Hotel was previously in use as an 84-unit SRO hotel with shared bathrooms and kitchens serving formerly homeless individuals. The 6-story Jefferson Inn was operated as a 65-room market rate hotel with two commercial spaces. The ground floors of both buildings will be joined to create a central entrance of the Savoy on Jefferson Street and common area amenities including 24-hour front desk service, services offices, computer/library and lounge areas. At completion, the project will offer 101 studio apartments to serve homeless and chronically homeless households as well as residents with mental health disabilities and other special needs. LifeLong Medical Care provides onsite services to help residents maintain their housing and achieve their personal goals.
