SAHA has acquired and recently completed renovation of Kenneth Henry Court, a 51-unit affordable community for low-income families in the City of Oakland. Located near the intersection of 64th Avenue and Foothill Blvd., KHC has been providing permanent affordable housing to the area's residents for over twenty years. SAHA has preserved the existing affordable housing and maintains the property as an affordable development and long-term community asset. As part of the rehabilitation, SAHA created a new computer-learning center as well as opened its community room to community events.
