As summer approaches, things are heating up at SAHA

Posted On: May 10th, 2016

Join us for SAHAppy Hour!

It's time for our annual Building Foundations Fundraiser. This year we invite you to our SAHAppy Hour on Wednesday, June 1 at the fabulous Den at the Fox in Oakland. Join us after work for appetizers, cocktails, and fun to raise funds for our resident services program. Individual tickets and sponsorship opportunities are still available. ^[3]

Breaking Ground: Housing News

The site work is done at Harper Crossing [4], and we're coming out of the ground! Construction is on track to finish mid-2017. Meanwhile, in Modesto, save the date for the Grand Opening of Tower Park on June 6. Also, Tabora Gardens in Antioch has secured all of its competitive financing and will be breaking ground this fall.

Affordable Housing Week

Mark your calendar and join us on May 18 during EBHO's Affordable Housing Week, and learn how SAHA community gardens, in partnership with City Slicker Farms, give residents an opportunity to participate in their community, and provide a happy, secure, and enjoyable outdoor space for peaceful socialization. Stop by Lakeside Senior Apartments One-Year Anniversary Tour with David Baker Architects on May 16 and be there when we share a very exciting announcement about a recent award! Click to Learn more about Affordable Housing Week [5].

Program Highlights

Recently we celebrated National Volunteer Week by thanking our more than 200 volunteers for their dedication and contribution in supporting our mission to strengthen community and neighborhoods. Fundraisers (like our upcoming SAHAppy Hour) and the HUD services grant we recently won from Alameda County will help us provide high quality services to our residents.
